Types of Cards Betting Markets

Cards betting markets are many, so you will be spoilt for

choice whether placing in-play or pre-match bets. Some of the commo n bet types you

should expect in bookies include Alternative Card Handicap and Asian T otal Cards.

Besides, you should look forward to the following selections:

Total Number of Bookings

Over / Under

The total number of bookings is a market where you guess the number of

yellow or red cards to be received by players within the match#39;

s regular time. This bet

type often comes in the form of Over/Under. For instance, the operator may require you

to predict whether the total number of bookings will be Over/Under

3.5. If you choose

Over 3.5, the number of cards given to players in the game must be cards given to

Bookings at Halftime

A football match usually has

determining the number of cards players will receive before the end of the first 45

minutes of a football match. In most cases, you will be required to estimate and not

state the exact number of yellow cards.

Handicap Cards

Handicap cards are a common

market in card betting. It is a three-way type of bet where you pun

t on a football team

that will get the most cards. This betting option refers to a team getting advantaged

or disadvantaged by the bookie to level the playing field. As a res
